On the Lighter Side

Food for Thought
When people go through a drive-thru at a fast-food restaurant why do they say that their order is to go? Are they really planning to order it outside and then take it inside to eat?
Would you sound polite or crazy if you answer 'you are welcome' to the waste bin that says 'thank you'?
Are drive-thru windows, in England, on the OTHER side of the building?
Why do people nod their heads when answering yes or no at a drive-thru speaker?
When you order black coffee at a fast food restaurant why do they always ask you if you want cream and sugar with it?
Why do they call it a drive thru when you have to drive AROUND the building?

confirmed bachelors sat talking, their conversation drifted from politics to cooking.
"I got a cookbook once," said one, "but I could never do anything with it."
"Too much fancy work in it, eh?" asked the other.
"You said it. Every one of the recipes began the same way -"Take a clean dish".
